This Is A Republic

The Founding Fathers of the Republic who suffered the tyranny of the British Crown feared as much a government run by the people in the mass as they did an absolute monarchy, so they formed the United States of America, a happy medium between the two extremes, a representative or Republican form of government.

Under such a system America prospered and its people thrived, and the United States became the world's foremost power.

Under courageous and enlightened leadership succeeding generations of Americans have been taught and urged to have supreme confidence in their ability to meet situations as they arise, no matter how perilous.

It is not in keeping with the American character to be afraid of anything, whether enemies, atomic bombs or the threat of alien ideologies. It would seem strange for a brave people to run to cover in a stampede to dig fallout shelters or to seriously consider the equally fatal alternatives of being "red or dead." The American eagle and not the American groundhog is the national emblem.

In her infancy the American Republic, sparsely populated and financially impoverished, won and deserved the respect of the civilized world by the sheer courage and character of its people and the statesmanship of their leaders, and a free America grew in might and stature.

People never rise to take their place in the sun seeking lives of luxury and security. Nations grow great meeting crises as they come; they become strong overcoming obstacles. Theodore Roosevelt, inspiring exponent of the realistic, said, "I wish to preach the doctrine of ignoble ease, but the doctrine of the strenuous life."

The United States of America is a government of independent individuals in a Republic of Sovereign States, builded out of the fundamentals of freedom, good character, hard work, true thrift and imperishable ideals.

If we keep America great, we must rediscover the secret of her original success and recapture the faith, vision and the common sense of those who laid a firm foundation, and meet the challenges of our own time as fearlessly as our fighting forebears who sacrificed so much to build this Republic.

With high hopes that we may carry on in that American tradition, and in keeping with the Spirit of the Season, our employees, officers and directors wish you and yours a full portion of Health and Prosperity in your Pursuit of Happiness.

At Waveland

The frigid blasts, yet broken pipes, from burned camellia bushes, winter appears as a gloomy backdrop for some time to come—however, daily encouraging note—the days are becoming warmer. praise be! On a rare sunny morning it turns on the lights as one cooks breakfast and the sunset home, even as the hands on the clock tick the afternoon. Not much, but promising of better. Only one further comment regarding the weather. . . . the first person complain about the heat in late May—then watch out—

It On the Lucases

A bit of catching up on our travellers—Fran and the children have returned from Dundas, Ontario, for the Christmas and New Year holidays visiting Mrs. Margaret Lucas and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lucas. Homecoming has at least explained our unusual absence weeks—they confessed to having brought the time with them! Bob is also in line for get well the second day at work he succeeded almost amputating himself. . . . he did such a thorough job of mangling the hand that surgery was necessary.

His returned from Europe laden with gifts and delectable wonderful trip. Bea's first stop after leaving New York where she lunched with former resident, Mr. and Mrs. Dan's Hideaway. . . . Jake reports that Ruth and Bea and that they are quite happy in their Greenwich, Conn. home. They are hoping to return to Waveland for a visit soon. Accompanying Bea were Mr. and Mrs. Rennie Richard, whose older son, Ronald was ordained in St. Peter on Dec. 20. Father Ronald was on retreat in Rome and a count, who is also a priest, very Augustinus Heinrich Count Henckel-Dommersmarch, was showing them the eternal city. An audience with the pope was on their agenda. From Rome they flew to Paris where a night club tour with Anthony Bertucci, they then to the Louvre—Bea has some water from the shrine and will gladly share with anyone who is ill—Their last port of call was Switzerland, where they spent Christmas—Our gal Bea had a fine time, but we have a feeling that she was more than ready to be home once again. . . . George is smiling a bit more

Our Sick Friends

A sincere hurry up and get well wish to Mr. Gus who is a patient in the Marine Hospital in New Orleans—He is in the bathroom and broke his hip during the holidays—He missed at the Lakeshore Civic Hall where he danced all night 'til the band played Home Sweet Home. Get well still in order for Oswald Villere—he'll be undergoing in October Foundation for the next week or so, although decided that surgery was not necessary.

Later is up and about once again looking over so much of his major surgery last month. Also under the care of Roy Saux, Matt Ballatin and Sam Blanchard. . . . Matt can probably blame some of their woes on a visit to the Club (with Ruth and Gerry, I had been ad), but poor Roy's pleasant memories to explain his sore throat.

To pass on the news that the Perrillats of Nicholson Ave. have left us were among those who discovered indoor pools when they opened the doors of their Waveland home. Jack Holm were more fortunate when they arrived Saturday morning storage took was their only casualty. Hope the O'Learys at Harbor had no plumbing troubles. . . . they do so enjoy their home.

The Bowlers

That about half of the local populace turned out to Bay Bowling All-Stars who competed with some fancy oil Sunday afternoon. . . . Anna and Gilbert Gayart, Merle Skiffel, Rosie and Teddo Thomas, Dot and Merin Markel, a new rooting for the home team. When we think of bowling naturally thing of Carmel Lenfant and are glad to report returned to spark her team, after being sidelined for two months with back trouble. Still on bowling—Grace Bortolotto up a 221 last week in league play, and defeated Burt out of four games last Friday. Don't know which feat was pleasing, but the latter was more profitable! Farewell to Daisy and Tony Cline whose departure permanent nature—Billy Ireland, son of Mrs. Betty Hill, owner of Elephant Rendezvous, is the new owner of Daisy's. . . . Billy is still undecided as to what he'll name the interesting guest of Mrs. Hill is Bernie Griffith of S a n C l i f f, who arrive in the Crescent City via jet Saturday

Andrew Bacon who spends his summers on Beach Blvd. won White House approval on his appointment as comptroller in New Orleans.

Don Guenard, III, also gets a happy birthday greeting. He and served the occasion last Friday with friends in New Orleans. William, IV, cut his first birthday cake on Jan. 9. . . . one of the Guards prompts us to mention that Hamilton, Guenard was an usher at the impressive dedication of the completed Lutheran Church of the Pines which took place on Jan. 10.

Hero of the Week

There isn't the only alligator fan around—Charmaine and were so concerned about the loss of their pet (full grown) they hired professional hunters to track him (or her?) . . . that we'll join in the search, but we hear that the beast was on Push Gex's lot on the beach. . . . The Normans' chief present is—did the alligator survive the freeze?? As just little public services we'll reassure them with the information—The World Book that in winter alligators bury themselves in mud or beneath water and were once found as the North Carolina, but due to the popularity of handbags, alligators fashioned from their hides are pretty much extinct in Florida.

Mrs. Allen J. Wilbur arrived to check for plumbing in their Jeff Davis summer home.

Ruth isn't doing much high stepping—in fact he's on the injured his leg in a fall last Saturday.

LAKE SHORE LOG

BY MRS. MALCOLM GREEN

HO 7-5816

We were very lucky during the freeze. Our water pump did not freeze as so did many of our neighbors. Had some stink trouble and two broken out door pipes, but we were never without water.

Happy birthday to little Pamela Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Green, who will be six on Jan. 22. Pamela's mom and pop, celebrated their 18th wedding anniversary Jan. 15. So congratulations.

Gulfview School P-TAs met Monday night and voted to make a contribution to the school athletic fund to help pay for new basketball uniforms.

The Clermont-Lakeshore Youth Center will hold an adult member meeting at 7:30 p.m. Friday when plans for the annual fair will be discussed. There will be a door prize.

The Lawrence Spences held a double celebration in their home this week. They were married five years Jan. 18 and Mrs. Spence has a birthday on the 22nd.

Gulfview School's annual invitational basketball tournament has been cancelled until a later date. Out of 25 invitations sent out, only five accepted. Some had mid-term exams, and others do not like to play on our concrete floor.

Miss Moe Courregue has been ill and in bed for over a week. Miss Theresa Zengaring to replace her.

Another recent birthday celebrant was Dave Markey who was 65 on the 19th. Margie and John Auderer and Althea and Sterling Balaski took him and Louise to dinner in honor of the occasion.

Belle Peterson, Grace and Helen Bortolotto, Doris Seuzeneau and Elaine Davis must have had a gay time when they lunched in Biloxi last Wednesday, but for Elaine's intervention, they would have driven home with a most novel antenna decoration! Elaine is spending much of her time on the highway as her grandmother, Mrs. J. J. Mummess, suffered a fractured vertebra in a recent fall—she'll be forced to wear an uncomfortable neck brace for the next six months.

Don't know how else to pass on the news that Teena and Lambert Bortolotto placed a for rent classified in the Echo last Thursday and their house was rented bright and early Friday. . . . how's that for results?

Bay Side of the News

A very happy birthday to Mrs. W. A. McDonald, she celebrates her 92nd birthday next month.

Sorry to hear that Valma Howard's son, Hoyt, is a patient in a Hattiesburg Hospital. Miriam Carbonette's friends will be happy to hear that she's now working in New Orleans. We knew that Dick Daley possessed numerous talents, but was unaware that he could give Arthur Murray dancing lessons—he's that good! As just about everyone else in town appeared blue-nosed and slightly pink-eyed, Joe Gex during the cold wave looked even prettier than usual in a bright blue outfit.

Gala Events at Yacht Club

The Yacht Club will be a busy place come the weekend of Feb. 23-24. Denizens of the Deep is the theme of the first annual mock Carnival Ball to be held at the club on Friday, the 23rd. A committee has been chosen to select a king; male club members attired in seagoing costumes will make up the krewes and the queen will be chosen from five maids, also to be pinpointed by the committee. The gals will wear formal or semi-formal attire and festivities will begin with cocktails at 8. The king and his krewes begin their reign promptly at 9. A ship-wreck breakfast is to be served at 12:30.

The following night the annual After-the-carnival ball fete will begin immediately after the SJA ball. To pep things up a bit we'll institute a contest—guess who will be the king and queen???? To enter one has only to print clearly on a postcard his or her guess accompanied by one bit of news for this column—haven't decided what the reward will be. . . . so we'll announce that next week!

Welcome to Waveland Mr. and Mrs. Ross Dickinson and their two children, who are now making their home on Nicholson Avenue. We'll soon be welcoming the Joe Damians of Jackson as their new house on Coleman Ave. nears completion.

Travis Culbreath is the proud owner of the sportiest new car around town.

More get well wishes go to Walter Damians who suffered a painful whiplash injury to his neck in an accident last week.

Good news—Marius and Bert Ladner's first son who was so tiny at birth is gaining nicely—he now weighs eight pounds.

Attractive Rella Gilmore, a resident of the Bay for about 16 years, who has made her home covering from a bout with pneumonia. Get well wishes to both. Albert Carco was in Hancock General during all the cold weather recuperating from surgery. Lippy Fricks has been discharged and is at home recovering from a heart ailment. Mr. Stroud, brother-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scharff, is still ill and on the no visitors list. The entry way to Gulfview School Gym is being closed in. Hope this helps to keep out some of the cold breezes that come in as the kids run in and out.

OUCH, MY FINGERS - Center Teddo Thomas of Bay High comes up with a rebound and three of SSC forward Mike Gore's fingers during Saturday night's game between the two school rivals. Other players shown are Dominick Scalfidi (30), Waymon Carr (33) of SSC and Ronnie Russell (20) and Richard Schaefer (45) of Bay High.

Rebels Overcome BHS Boys

Glenda Kennedy Saves Tigerettes

Five pressure-packed free throws by Glenda Kennedy in the final minute of play gave the Bay High Tigerettes a 60-54 upset basketball victory over highly-rated Harrison Central Friday night and enabled the local school to gain a split of the night's double-header. The Red Rebel boys swamped the Tigers 83-57.

In one of the most excitement-filled girls' contests in the Tiger gym during the past couple of years, the Tigerettes took an early lead in the first quarter when forward Susan Doering connected with three straight outside shots. The Tigerettes led 17-7 at the quarter and after seeing their lead narrowed to almost nothing in the second stanza, pulled away again for a 34-21 halftime lead. The Tigerettes lead was cut to 47-40 at the third quarter break and were ahead only by three points when Glenda took over. She sank two foul tosses for a 57-52 lead, then after making another and missing one, and watching Harrison Central cut the margin to four points, she threw two more into the hoop to put the game on ice.

Susan Doering was high scorer for the winners with 23 points, 18 of which came in the first half. Carol Bourgeois followed close behind with 22 and Glenda Kennedy scored 15. Debbie Lanning scored 24 points for the Red Rebelettes.

The local sextet was handicapped by fouls as the four top guards Rhonda Osborne, Maria Peterson, Nita Kay Erwin and Peggy LaFrance, fouled out before the game ended.

Bay High stayed close to powerful Harrison Central in the nightcap for one quarter, and were still within striking distance at halftime, but the Red Rebels had too much of a height advantage for the locals to cope with.

Thomas Robertson and Robert Vonnore were the leading players in the boys' game for the local school and in girls' play, Yana Thomas and Carolyn Price were the top forwards and Betty Osborne was outstanding on defense.

In the North Gulfport tournament last weekend, the VCJ girls' squad reached the semifinals before losing 33-31 to 33rd High School while the local quintet was beaten by Randolph High in opening round play. The girls had gained the semifinals with a win over Ocean Springs. Both boys' and girls' cage squads beat Piquette Thursday night.

Bennett Gives JV Victory

Gore, Carr Lead SSC To Win Over Tigers

St. Stanislaus rode the hot-shooting right arms of forward Mike Gore and center Waymon Carr Saturday night for a 63-55 win over the Bay High Tigers in the annual battle of Bay St. Louis's two high schools at the Stanislaus gym.

Bay High's Charles Bennett bit with a long one-bander with one second remaining to give the Tiger junior varsity a 35-33 victory over the Rock JV in a preliminary game.

The Rocks pulled away to a big second quarter lead on the strength of some fine offensive play by Gore, Carr and guard Waldo Caceres, building the margin to 13 points after a 10-10 stalemate in the opening period. Stanislaus' halftime advantage was 31-22. Bay High roared back in the third period and left the floor trailing only 44-41 going into the final stanza. The Tigers narrowed the gap to one point and had several chances to go ahead in the final quarter before the Rockchaws pulled away with four quick baskets with about two minutes remaining.

Gore, hitting consistently from outside, scored 22 points, and Carr 21 for the Rockchaws, and both played a good game on the boards for Brother Ralph's quintet. Caceres played a fine defensive game and scored seven points. Nodie Ladner made several key defensive plays in the final minutes when it looked as if the Tigers might pull it out, and he scored five. Dominick Scalfidi had six points.

Ronnie Peterson led Bay High in scoring. While it wasn't one of his better games of the season, the Tiger captain did manage to pick up 20 points. Richard Schaefer scored 17, Leroy Luke eight, Ronnie Russell six, and Teddo Thomas three. Coach Wilmer Seymour's Tigers did not use a substitution. The Rockchaws used only one, when Caceres fouled out with less than a minute to play.

Stanislaus took a second quarter lead over the Tiger JVs in the first game of the night, and it took a fourth period rally by Coach Seymour's boys to stop Coach Billy Rhodes' squad.

Bay High rallied when tall freshman Ross Maurigi came into the game in the second period. Maurigi, along with center Billy Fahlman helped the Tigers control the backboards, and Maurigi scored 10 points, eight in the third quarter to keep the Tigers in the game. The Tigers also got a break when Rockchaw Ned Heath fouled out in the third quarter. Heath had scored seven points in the first half.

The Tigers finally caught the

Harry Hears... Wildcats Are Our Bet

Mississippi State continues to rack up basketball victories, but the wins now are coming by the skin of their teeth, and there are other ways to win games. The Maroons have lost only once in 14 outings, and that was to a good Vanderbilt team in Nashville.

The Maroons are being spotted scoring-wise by Kila's Leland Mitchell and a hot-shooting guard named W. D. (Red) Stroud. We think Mississippi State has a solid ball club, but they'll have to improve 150 per cent before they're going to beat Adolph Rupp's Kentucky Wildcats.

Mitchell is averaging between 16 and 17 points a game for the Maroons and Stroud is less than a point behind in the scoring derby. Between them, they've led State to a Sugar Bowl championship, a perfect pre-conference activity record, and to a position where should Kentucky and Tulane falter, the Maroons could grab SEC championship honors.

Kentucky, we think, is the class of the South, and we wouldn't be surprised if the Wildcats don't end up meeting Ohio State in March for the National Championship. Bracket for the NCAA tourney, of course, have not been drawn up, and it might be that the Buckeyes and Wildcats would have to play in regional activity instead of the national finals, but we believe if anybody is capable of defeating Ohio State, Kentucky is.

The Wildcats are not a big team - they are as small as Mississippi State - but in most contests, they have completely dominated the backboards. They have one of the top five centers in collegiate basketball in Charley (Cotton) Nash, and get strong rebounding from their forwards and guards.

Kentucky has a 13-1 record against some rough competition. The Wildcats' only loss was a two-point decision to Southern California, one of the nation's best. This loss came in the Kentuckyans' second game of the season, and when you consider that five of the top six players from last year's squad graduated, inexperience played a definite role in that defeat.

We've heard all of Kentucky's games on radio this season, perhaps that's the reason we're so high on the Wildcats - but we can't help but be impressed with the easy wins produced by Nash, guard Larry Purcell, and company. One of the chief reasons for the good Wildcat record has been their schedule. Kentucky started the season with 10 consecutive home games, and out of 14 games, now have played only two out of the friendly confines of Kentucky. One game was a Nashville against Vanderbilt and the other in Knoxville against Tennessee. Kentucky, located in Lexington, did play one game in Louisville, but playing in Louisville only meant that several thousand more people could cheer for their team than in Lexington.

Why Not a City Championship?

St. Stanislaus and Bay High played Saturday night in the SSC gymnasium with St. Stanislaus emerging a 63-55 winner. If the two teams were to play again in the Rockaway gym, the outcome would probably be about the same, but if they played at Bay High, we think the Tigers could win. The teams are very evenly-balanced.

At any rate, it was a good exciting game, and if there was any poor sportsmanship, fighting, or any complaints about other unfair play, we certainly didn't see them. As far as we're concerned, the two teams would meet more often - at least until something happens that should cause athletic contests between St. Stanislaus and Bay High to be cancelled.

Games between the two will always be hotly contested. Both teams wanted to win Saturday's game had - probably more than any other game of the season. The spectators were the same way as the players - they cheered louder than at any game this year. There were no - more than usual - but we think when you can't yell insults at an official, you lose some of the excitement of the game. We think it's part of the game when fans scream from their seats that a referee needs glasses, and we believe officials know this.

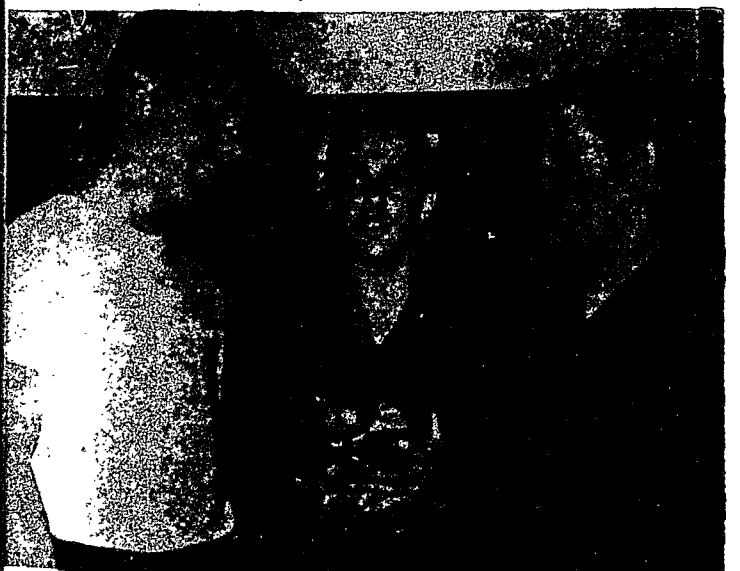

We think that at the end of their respective basketball seasons, Bay High and St. Stanislaus should play for a city championship. It probably can't and won't be done, but if the two teams could play two-out-of-three games, playing the first and last games in the gymnasium of the team with the best regular-season record, that would increase basketball interests, friendly relations, and better sportsmanship between the two schools rather than opposite effects.

Some Girl Cagers to Watch

Last week while mentioning players to watch in the Bay High invitational tournament this week, we remarked that Harrison Central girls' squad had an excellent foul-shooter in Debbie Lanning. Friday night when the Rebels played Bay High, Miss Lanning made five free throws in 17 attempts. Another Harrison Central player was 1-6 and the other was 6-16 and the other forward who played was 2-20. In the game, Harrison Central missed 35 free throws. This must be some kind of a record!

The Bay High - Harrison Central girls' game, won by Bay High, was exciting and for a time it looked as if the visitors would have to play the Tigerettes with less than a full team. The Red Rebels carried only eight players, and with four minutes still to be played, one of the six starters had already fouled out and four others had fouled out. The lone reserve employed by Central, however, fouled three times in the final two minutes, and the other starter with less than four fouls (five is the maximum) collected a couple in the final stages of the game. Four players fouled from Bay High as 58 fouls were called.

Two more of the top players who will be participating in the Bay High tourney which began last night and continues through Saturday are Gayle and Dale Farmer, Harrison Central twins, who really now they way around the basketball court. Gayle, a starter, scored over 20 points in about half a game Friday night against Bay High and Dale, as a substitute, looked good enough to play regular on any other team we've seen this season. In fact, Harrison Central might just whip Bay High Saturday afternoon in the semifinals of the tournament and go on to win the event.

Bay Boys Topple North Gaters

Bay Bowling Center's senior boys' team defeated Northgate Lanes' junior boys' team Saturday afternoon, 9-1 at the local alleys.

The local squad, composed of the top five bowlers from the local senior boys' league, was handicapped when their top average bowler, Albert Brignac (146) was unable to bowl because of illness. Dick Watts, however, filled in capably and the above-average bowling of Ed Shumski, Mike Pindexter and Watts led the local team. Shumski had a 491 series, including a 180 game. Pindexter was 446 for three

Holy Rosary Wins Baby Jay Tourney

Holy Rosary of New Orleans won the first place trophy Saturday afternoon in the St. Joseph's Academy Baby Jay basketball tournament, defeating St. Francis of New Orleans in the finals.

The cheering trophy was won by St. Pius X. Other teams participating were St. Rose of New Orleans, St. Rita's of Harahan, St. Joseph Cathedral of Baton Rouge, and the local SJA grammar school sextet.

Outstanding for the host team was Cathy Crossley.

Gold Jays Post Win Over Perk

St. Joseph Academy's Gold Jays will resume cage action this week in the Bay High invitational tournament after a long layoff. The only game played during the past two weeks by the Gold Jays was against Perkinston, and the local squad posted a 15 point win.

Leading scorers for the Gold Jays against Perk were Mary Jo Krieger, Cassie Rhodes and Judy Favre, while the job of holding down the Bullpup scoring was done well by Eran Artigues, Margo Jacobi and Bonita French.

The Gold Jays face Ocean Springs Friday at 5:30 p.m. in the Bay High tourney, and with a victory will then play the winner of the Bay High-St. Martin girls' game at 2:30 p.m. Saturday.

17 Men Sent For Physicals

Seventeen local men were sent to the Selective Service Armed Forces Induction Station in Jackson Monday for their pre-induction physicals.

They were Gus Garcia, Albert John Grass, Larry David Fayard, Edward Sidney Carver, John G. Shaw, Oren McKee Seal, Lourie Wayne Shaw, Clinton Ladner, Earl Harrington, Clarence A. McKay, Joel B. Lee, Edward Thomas, Jr., Allen L. Fredrick, Lewis Joseph Reed, Aubrey Page, Walter B. Norman and Herschel Paul Spiers.

Mrs. Agnes Zengering, clerk of the local board, reported Daniel Ray Barker has been transferred to the board in Santa Anna, Calif., and Seth Aubrey Crippen to Galveston, Tex.

Benefit Match Set

A shooting match for the benefit of Mrs. Henry Lurich, ill for the last 20 years and admitted to Hancock General Hospital last weekend, is scheduled at 2 p.m. Sunday at Tommy Lyles' place on U. S. 90.

Games, with a 171 high single game, Wynn had a 414 series, J. P. Compton scored an even 400, and Harry Shumuck 396. New Wynn was outstanding for the Gulfport Keglers. Northgate had two 300 games, both in the first game, the only win for the visitors. Bay Bowl, after dropping the opener by 24 pins, won the second by 43 and the deciding third game by three pins, and also captured total pins.

Bay Bowl will meet Northgate in a return match at 2 p.m. Saturday in Gulfport.

Sideliners Elect, Set Spring Program

Henry J. Davis was elected president of St. Stanislaus Sideliner Club at its meeting Tuesday night. He will succeed James A. Travira.

Others elected were George L. Seuzean, Jr., first vice president, and Edward Heitzmann, second vice president with Brother Athanasius to serve another term as secretary-treasurer. Installation was scheduled for 8 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 3.

A number of activities during the coming months were planned. The annual open independent basketball tournament was set for Feb. 12-17 with 12 men's teams and eight women's squads to participate. Trophies will be presented to the winners and runners-up after the final game.

A boxing match is planned in March between a team from the New Orleans Athletic Club and one from Mobile; annual Sideliner Club fair will be in April and May 20 was selected as the date for the speed boat regatta.

Rocks Get New Grid Coach???

A new head football coach has been named for St. Stanislaus College to succeed Reuben Rutz who resigned to go to Catholic High School in Baton Rouge. It was disclosed this week.

Brother Dacten, principal and athletic director, said that because of prior commitments to an out-of-town newspaper, he was unable to tell the Echo the name of the new grid mentor.

Stanislaus lost another coach during the last week when Billy Rhindas, assistant, resigned to accompany Rutz to Baton Rouge. Both will leave at the end of the school year.

Notre Dame Hands Rocks Fifth Loss

St. Stanislaus cagers were handed their fifth loss of the season Thursday night by the Notre Dame Rebels of Biloxi 47-33 in Biloxi. The win gave the Rebels revenge for an earlier loss inflicted upon their hoop record by Brother Ralph's Rockaways.

SSC fell behind in the early going and trailed 12-3 after one quarter, 24-16 at halftime, and 31-23 going into the final stanza. Mike Gore was the only Rockaway to hit twin-figures with 15 points. Waldo Caceres scored eight, Wayman Carr seven, Dominick Sciffitt two, and Nadie Ledner was held to one point. The Rocks were handicapped when Gore and Caceres both fouled out.

Cage Court Eyed For SSC Day School

Provision for a basketball court at St. Stanislaus Day School were discussed at a meeting of the Mothers Club last Tuesday at the school. Mrs. Russell Elliott, president, expressed appreciation to members who worked on the Christmas party given for the boys.

On Treating Plants Damaged by Freeze

When you are certain of the extent of freeze damage, perhaps a matter of several weeks, before pruning ornamental landscape plants, County Agent O. O. Swords recommended this week.

When it is evident that extensive damage has been done, the plants should be cut back to live wood, he continued. Plants should be watered thoroughly as soon as possible to prevent drying which causes more damage than the cold, Swords noted.

A knife or the thumb nail can be used to scratch back and determine if the shrub has been killed all the way down the main trunk or main stems. Often the damage is in the outside twigs and branches, and the plant will need only a light clipping back.

If the cambium layer, just beneath the bark of the stem or trunk, shows discoloration, this is a sign that the plant needs cutting back below such damage. Crepe myrtle, Anthony Waterer spirea, althea, butterfly bush and highbush cranberry are among the shrubs which bloom on this year's growth of wood. It is possible to prune this group after a heavy freeze and still have flowers from them in the summer.

Tea roses, many of which were in bud, should be pruned to remove dead wood after it is evident. If the rose is of a vigorous variety, it will make sufficient growth during the summer even if it is killed back to the ground.

Evergreen plants as holly, pine, spruce and laurel usually are injured by sudden changes in temperature. In the earliest stages, freeze injury is evident as "scorching" of the leaves at the tips. On narrow-leaf evergreens the needles are browned entirely. The twigs are brittle and snap when bent.

If there is any doubt that twigs and branches have been killed, it is best to wait a few weeks until such damage will be easily seen. At that time, prune

Tractor Stolen From Fernandez Found on U.S. 90

Harlan Dean, Constable Beat 1, reported recovery of a tractor, stolen from the home of Pete Fernandez of Pearllington around 11:30 p.m. Tuesday, J. C. Schubert, a neighbor of Fernandez, spotted a man driving the tractor and when he stopped in question him, the man advanced brandishing a large stick. Schubert then went to Dean's home. When they returned to the scene, they found the man, whom Schubert was unable to identify other than that he was white, had left and the tractor was on the side of the road.

Dean also reported he has in his possession a red male cocker spaniel found on U. S. 90 last week and a white 14 foot skiff which was drifting in Pearl River.

Livestock Board Discontinues Pay For Vets' Services

Dairy cattle and beef farmers in Hancock County are being notified by County Agent O. O. Swords that effective Jan. 1 the Livestock Sanitary Board has discontinued payment to veterinarians on a fee basis for official calfhood vaccinations for brucellosis and for inspection services at specifically approved livestock markets. The step is due to lack of funds for these services, he explained.

The livestock board will continue to furnish vaccine and tags for official calfhood vaccinations which will be at owners' expense.
